New Film Probes America

LOST GENERATION, the latest release from World Wide Pictures, will be shown on Sunday, August 20, at the Liberty Baptist Church, 100 S. Church St., Appomattox, Va.

Filmed in Eastmancolor, LOST GENERATION utilizes multiple screen images and a probing documentary style to investigate attitudes on dissent, violence, the mood of America, and the answers that can be found by this generation as they face the decisions of life, According to the Reverend Richard C. Brackin, pastor of the church, the opinions of both young and old, urban and rural, rich and poor, are brought to the screen as the camera focuses on people of various backgrounds throughout the Nation. Location shots were filmed in Alaska, the Southern states, on the farms and in the small towns of mid-America, and in the dying Haight-Ashbury hippie district of San Francisco.

The feature - length film, which includes special appearances by Billy Graham, Art Linkletter, and Jack Webb, was described by one reviewer as a "moving film that calls on us to make a decision about how much we want to get involved in the troubles of our times, it is a relevant story that demands our

Transco Will Fund 12 Test Gas Wells

Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation today announced an agreement covering a joint exploration program with Shell Oil Company in the Warrior Basin of the states of Alabama and Mississippi. A minimum of 12 test wells will be drilled on the various acreage blocks in the program.

Funds will be made available by Transcontinental Production Company, a wholly owned subsidiary, in addition to a 20 per cent ownership interest in the areas tested, Transco will also have a gas purchase right to Shell's interest in any gas discovered.

The Warrior Basin, where Shell has 1.5 million acres under lease, is located in western central Alabama and eastern and central Mississippi and is approximately 80 to 100 miles from Transco's main gas transmission system The basin has been the focus of growing interest in its hydro carbon potential, and exploratory drilling is expected to accelerate.

Transco transports natural gas from Texas, Louisiana, and
